PLAYING FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

1 :: The Terps have won two NCAA titles (1973 and 1975) and have played in seven more title games, most recently in 1998. Maryland has appeared in 15 of the last 17 NCAA tournaments and have reached at least the quarterfinals in its last 10 appearances. The Terrapins have also won 25 ACC titles, including the 2004 and 2005 championships.

THE RIVALRY

2 :: The most storied rivalry in all of college lacrosse is Maryland-Johns Hopkins. The 103rd meeting between the two schools will take place on April 14, 2007 at Byrd Stadium at 8:00 p.m. and will be televised nationally on ESPNU. Last season saw Joe Walters score five goals, the most ever by a Terp vs. Hopkins, in an 11-5 Maryland win.

TERPS IN THE LACROSSE HALL OF FAME

3 :: Thirty former Maryland players and coaches have been elected to the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame. The latest Terp to be inducted was former coach Dick Edell in 2004.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

4 :: Maryland men's lacrosse placed14 student-athletes on the 2004-05 ACC honor roll (3.0 or better GPA for both semesters. In addition to that, 2005 graduate Ian Healy was a Phi Beta Kappa honoree, just the third Terrapin student-athlete in any sport to be inducted into the nation's oldest and largest academic society.

IN THE PROS

5 :: A total of 44 former Terps have played lacrosse professionally in either the MLL, the NLL or both leagues. Bill McGlone, a 2006 Maryland grad, scored three goals in the Chicago Shamrox's first-ever home game.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

6 :: Being a Terp means being in the spotlight of the lacrosse world. Since 1946, 22 Maryland men's lacrosse players have won national awards, including back-to-back National Defensive Player of the Year award winners Michael Howley (pictured) in 2003 and Lee Zink in 2004 and 2006 Turnbull Award winner Joe Walters.

In addition to regularly appearing on national television during its season, Maryland lacrosse also receives extensive media coverage from Inside Lacrosse, Lacrosse Magazine, the Baltimore Sun, Washington Post and Washington Times.

THE FLAG

7 :: Prior to every game, Maryland strength and conditioning coach Marc Heineke leads the Terps out on to the field.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS LOOKING TO MAKE THIRD-STRAIGHT FINAL FOUR

While a third straight trip to the NCAA Final Four is not out of the question for the University of Maryland men's lacrosse team, the Terps will have to get there with a different formula than the previous two trips.

Maryland loses four All-Americans on offense that combined for 113 goals (69% of team's production), 58 assists (57%) and 171 points (64%) last season. Head coach Dave Cottle, now in his sixth year at the helm of the Maryland program, knows the challenge will be in finding ways to replace that production.

"Obviously you can't just replace those guys and expect the same results," says Cottle. "The challenge for us is to get guys that have never been asked to score on a consistent basis to do just that. We have to come up with a good game plan that will fit the personnel we have on the field this year.

"The good news is that we have some players that we feel are up to that challenge and we have a very good defense that will allow our offense to gain experience."

ATTACK

The Terps return two-thirds of their starting attack in senior Michael Phipps and junior Max Ritz, but the third spot in the starting line-up is up for grabs during preseason practice.

Phipps and Ritz are experienced with a combined 50 starts between them, but both will be asked to increase their production this season. Ritz is the team's leading returning scorer from last season when he posted 31 points on 20 goals and 11 assists. Phipps has totaled 20 goals and 25 assists during his three seasons as a Terrapin.

Entering the spring sophomore Danny Gallagher is penciled into the third attack position, but will need to continue to improve to hold onto that spot. Sophomore Scott Tompkins, who scored three goals in limited time as a freshman, entered the spring as the fourth attackman, but freshman Fran Gormley has played well and is challenging for that spot.

Also in the mix is sophomore Nick Ward, a lefty who was moved from midfield to attack during the fall.

MIDFIELD

The biggest question mark for the Terps this season lies in their offensive midfield. Maryland possesses many quality midfielders, but the challenge for Cottle and offensive coordinator Andy Copelan will be finding the right mix of that talent for each of the midfield lines.

Heading into the season Thomas Alford, Jimmy Borell, Will Dalton, Drew Evans, Chris Feifs, Travis Holmes, Dan Groot and Jeremy Sieverts will be competing for spots on the first two lines and all will be important to Maryland's success this year.

Borell is one of the best pure athletes on the team. After beginning his Terp career as an offensive midfielder, Borell spent a season and a half as a short-stick defensive middie. This season in addition to seeing time as a d-middie, he is set to run on one of the Terrapins' top offensive lines.

Holmes is an extremely physical player that saw time on the second midfield last season and could be the anchor for that unit again as a senior.

Alford and Feifs are seniors who have seen limited playing time so far, but the pair has dedicated themselves during the offseason and has emerged as team leaders.

Juniors Dalton and Evans have played significant minutes during their first two seasons and could become breakout performers in 2007.

Groot could be the most talented of Maryland's midfield crop and played on the Terps' second line as a freshman. He also saw some time early last season on the man-up unit.

Sieverts, a sophomore transfer from Butler, was a second team All-GWLL selection as a freshman in 2006, and could work his way onto the first or second lines. Last year Sieverts led the Bulldogs with nine assists and was second on the squad with 25 points and 16 goals.

Other midfielder contenders include Australian import Adam Sear, senior Jay Feeley, who makes the transition from attack to midfield, sophomore Rob Morrison, redshirt freshman Andrew Zilch and freshman Casey Creaney.

SHORT STICKS

With Jimmy Borell and Jeff Reynolds the Terps boast two of the top defensive midfielders in the nation.

Borell will also see time as an offensive midfielder, but his athleticism, aggressiveness and physical style of play make him one of the country's top short sticks.

Reynolds has the potential to be an All-American in the mold of former Terp great Paul Gillette. Reynolds, one of the team's top all-around athletes, has the speed to stay with any offensive player and is strong enough to hold his own physically. With a cannon for a shot he could also prove to be an offensive weapon in transition.

Spencer McAllister made great strides in 2006 and is expected to work his way into the rotation this season.

A pair of freshmen, Dean Hart and Bryn Holmes, could also see playing time this year. Each showed good skills during the fall, but need to continue to progress this spring.

Graduate student Paul Andrews will most likely be a face-off specialist, but will also provide depth in the defensive midfield.

LONG POLES

An influx of talented freshmen and a dynamic senior leader make this position one of Maryland's strengths for 2007.

Senior Ryan Clarke played like an All-American for much of 2006 and looks to continue to impress in his final season. The 6-foot-3, 230-pound Clarke, one of the game's best when the ball is on the ground, will be expected to elevate his game on a more consistent basis.

Another talented player who could make an impact is Sean Sullivan. The senior had a good fall season and could be a factor for the Terps this year.

Freshman Brian Farrell is the team's third pole coming into the spring. An outstanding athlete, the 6-foot-5, 260-pound Farrell has displayed outstanding stick and passing skills since arriving on campus.

Sophomore Chris Rhine saw time as the third pole last season and is expected to see playing time this year. A high-energy player, Rhine will also be used as a face-off wingman.

Freshmen Dan Halayko will begin his Terrapin career as long poles, but could also see time at close defense.

STEVE WHITTENBERG

HARRY ALFORD

CLOSE DEFENSE

The Terps return their starting corps of close defenders for the second straight season and with two preseason first team All-Americans and a third team selection it's fair to say that Maryland's starting close defense is the nation's top unit entering 2007.

Senior Steve Whittenberg, an All-American in each of his two seasons at Maryland, is a shutdown defender who is as adept on the ball as he is off and is the Terrapins' top take-away guy.

Senior Ray Megill, a third team All-American last year, is an explosive athlete that uses his physical abilities to complement exceptional technique. He has proved to be a versatile defender and could see time at long pole.

Junior Joe Cinosky is one of the nation's top defenders and his play on the field has started earning him some recognition. He missed the fall season due to hernia surgery, but is fully healed and ready for the season.

Junior Zach Hinton started during the fall while Cinosky was out and could see significant time this season. Fellow juniors Jacob Baxter and Ryne Adolph are also expected to contribute this season.

Sophomores Anthony Costanzo and Mike Griswold have improved since their freshman campaign and could compete for playing time this year.

Sophomore Kevin Slafkosky missed the entire fall with a broken foot, but he could work his way back into the mix if his rehabilitation goes well.

GOALIE

Maryland has its goalie of the present and its goalie of the future in senior Harry Alford and highly-touted freshman Brian Phipps, but the most important goalie on the roster could prove to be Jason Carter.

Alford, a two-time All-American, suffered a shoulder injury during the Terps' fall scrimmage against Notre Dame and will not be available at the start of the season. How long that injury takes to heal will greatly impact the Terrapins. When healthy Alford is one of the best shot-stoppers in the game and his experience clearing the ball is essential to Maryland's success this season. Entering the season the starting job belongs to Carter, who in 10 career appearances has shown to be a reliable net-minder. In those 10 appearances, the junior has stopped more than 65 percent of the shots he's faced and boasts a 5.45 goals allowed average.

Phipps is Maryland's highest ranked newcomer according to Inside Lacrosse, but will be the back-up to begin the season. A highly intelligent goalie, Phipps is a true tactician in net who will see playing time this year.

FACE-OFFS

Facing-off is always a key to success in lacrosse and the Terps have options when it comes to finding a winning combination at the "X."

Thomas Alford and Will Dalton have each taken their share of face-offs during the past two seasons and that experience gives them a leg up on their competition.

Others competing for the face-off job include Paul Andrews, Casey Creaney and Bryn Holmes.

The wildcard of the group could be Jeff Reynolds, who took some draws last season.

HEAD COACH DAVE COTTLE

SIXTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • SALISBURY '78

Dave Cottle, the third winningest active coach in lacrosse, begins his sixth season at the helm of the Maryland lacrosse program. He was named the eighth coach in the storied history of Maryland lacrosse on Sept. 26, 2001, after a sensational 19-year stint as the head coach at Loyola College in Baltimore.

Cottle, 51, took the reins from the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, who retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 years with the Terps.

He enters the 2007 season as the third winningest active coach in the sport of lacrosse, winning 72.1 percent of his games for a 238-92 record. During his five seasons in College Park a total of 19 Terrapins have earned 35 All-America selections.

Last season saw the Terps return to the NCAA Final Four for the second straight season. Cottle's squad finished the year with a 12-5 record and earned Maryland the No. 2 seed in the NCAA tournament for just the second time in school history. Seven Terrapin players earned All-America honors with attackman Joe Walters and midfielder Bill McGlone being first team selections. Walters was also named the ACC Player of the Year for the second time in his career and was the winner of the Turnbull Award, which is given annually to the nation's top attackman.

In 2005 he directed Maryland to its ninth trip to the NCAA Semifinals and its second straight ACC tournament championship. The Terps ended the season with an overall record of 11-6, but finished the season winning six of their last seven games. Six Maryland players were named postseason All-Americans, including McGlone, who was a first team selection. Cottle's program also earned another honor in June of 2005 when Walters was named to the 2006 U.S. National Team, the only college player to be selected to the 23-man roster.

Cottle guided the 2004 Terps to a 13-3 record and their first ACC championship since 1998. Maryland finished the season ranked No. 3 in the USILA poll and made it to the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament. Eight Terrapin players earned All-America honors, including three first team honorees, and Lee Zink was named National Defenseman of the Year, marking the second straight season a Terp earned that honor.

In 2003 he led Maryland back to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years, but the first since 1998. The Terps had a stellar season finishing ranked No. 3 in the nation after being ranked in the top seven all season. Maryland piled numerous accolades as they had eight USILA All-Americans including first-team honoree and National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley.

The Terps posted a 12-4 record in 2003 and gave Cottle his third trip to the national semifinals. He led the Greyhounds to two national semifinal appearances including an appearance in the 1990 championship game.

The backbone of Cottle's success has been his emphasis on a strong work ethic intelligent recruiting, attention to detail, and a creative approach to the game. He also is a true believer in the concept of "student-athlete." In each of the last four years his team's graduation rate has been 89 percent or higher. Six of Cottle's Terrapin players earned USILA Scholar All-America honors, including 2005 graduate Ian Healy, who became just the third Maryland student-athlete to be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nations oldest and most prestigious academic society.

2007 Opponents Bold

He led his Loyola teams to top-10 finishes in each his 14 seasons. The Greyhounds finished with a winning record the final 18 years of his tenure, dating to 1984. Loyola also played in 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

A Baltimore native, Cottle took over a struggling Greyhound program in 1983. Since posting a first-year record of 5-9, his only losing season, Cottle's Loyola teams reeled off 18 consecutive winning seasons. The 1998 team's 13-2 campaign, which ended with a berth in the NCAA semifinals, saw Loyola reach a No. 1 national ranking, and the school's first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1988 the Greyhounds began their current run of 14 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Loyola advanced to the national championship game in 1990, and it has made 10 NCAA quarterfinal appearances. In fact, Loyola has advanced to at least the national quarterfinals in seven of the past eight seasons.

The 1990 team, a potent mix of seasoned veterans and talented underclassmen, marched all the way to the NCAA championship game after making the school's first NCAA semifinal appearance. In the semifinals the Greyhounds staged an incredible comeback to beat Yale, 14-13, in overtime and advanced to the title contest against two-time defending champion Syracuse. The Orangemen ended Loyola's quest for the national title, but the Greyhounds' 1990 season always will be remembered.

In 1994 Cottle guided the Greyhounds to one of their best seasons ever. Loyola finished 11-2, recording wins against four teams that participated in the NCAA Tournament. The Greyhounds earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for only the second time in the program's history during that memorable campaign. Loyola concluded the regular season with a 17-15 victory over Johns Hopkins, the program's first victory ever against the Blue Jays. Ranked third in the final USILA poll, the Greyhounds earned a first-round bye into the NCAA Tournament before dropping a 14-13 overtime decision to Brown in the NCAA quarterfinals.

Cottle also guided his 1988 and 1989 teams to the postseason. The 1988 squad finished with a 12-2 record, earning Loyola's first NCAA Division I tournament berth. Loyola defeated Air Force for its first NCAA postseason victory before losing to Penn in an exciting quarterfinal. The Greyhounds concluded the campaign ranked fifth in the nation, and Cottle earned USILA Coach-of-the-Year honors, becoming the first coach in Loyola athletic history to receive a national award. Cottle was selected to coach the South team in the 1988 North-South All-Star Game.

The 1989 Greyhounds became the only Loyola lacrosse team to complete an undefeated regular season. The Greyhounds beat four nationally ranked teams en route to a perfect 10-0 mark. Loyola was ranked third in the final poll, behind eventual national champion Syracuse and Johns Hopkins. A quarterfinal loss to North Carolina ended Loyola's season, but the Greyhounds captured the attention of the lacrosse world with their best record ever.

Cottle came to Loyola in 1982 after leading Severn School to a 26-9 record and consecutive Maryland Scholastic Association championships. Prior to his success at Severn, Cottle served for two years as a graduate assistant coach, assistant varsity lacrosse coach and physical education instructor at his alma mater, Salisbury State University.

One of the finest players in Salisbury State history, Cottle was enshrined into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989. During his career he re-wrote the NCAA record book, while earning All-America honors three times. He still holds many places in the Salisbury State record book, and was just the second player in collegiate lacrosse history to score over 100 points in a single season. The nation's leading scorer in 1975, he served as captain of the South team in the North-South All-Star Game.

Cottle received his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1978 from Salisbury.

He was an assistant coach for Team USA 1994, which won the world championship in Manchester, England. Cottle has addressed many lacrosse gatherings across the country, including the USILA Coaches' Convention, and he serves as a member of the All-America Selection Committee. In February of 1998 he was inducted into the Baltimore Chapter of the Lacrosse Foundation's Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Baltimore's Northern High School, Cottle lives with his wife, Lynn, daughters, Taylor and Tory, and son, Sean, in Edgewater, Md.

DAVE SLAFKOSKY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR • 24TH SEASON AT MARYLAND
JOHNS HOPKINS '74

Defensive coordinator Dave Slafkosky continues his association with the Maryland lacrosse program as he enters his 24th season with the Terps this spring. This season will be the sixth straight Slafkosky has worked with Dave Cottle after the previous 18 with his best friend, coach Dick Edell, who retired in September 2001.

Slafkosky and Edell celebrated their 25th year together in 2001 in leading the Terps to a No. 1 ranking at midseason. The duo was also featured on the cover of Inside Lacrosse magazine. Edell and Slafkosky's relationship began when the two coached together at Army from 1977-1983. When Edell came to Maryland, his only request was that "Coach Slaf" join him. Granting Edell's only request was a critical decision that ensured unprecedented success for the program. Slafkosky has continued to serve admirably under Cottle for the past five years.

When Cottle came aboard as head coach in 2002, Slafkosky returned to the defensive side of the game as defensive coordinator after serving as offensive coordinator in 2001.

The 2005 season saw Slafkosky mold an entirely new defensive unit into a group that helped lead Maryland to the 2005 NCAA Final Four. Sophomore defenseman Steve Whittenberg was named a third team All-American, while goalie Harry Alford and defenseman Ray Megill were honorable mention selections.

Last season saw that 2005 defense return nearly intact and the results showed, as the Terps finished with a 12-5 record, returned to the NCAA Final Four and finished third in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing just 6.47 goals per game. Whittenberg earned second team All-America honors, while Megill was a third-team selection. Alford was a honorable mention honoree for the second straight season.

The 2004 season marked the second straight season that the Terp defense produced the National Defenseman of the Year in Lee Zink. Maryland's defense also produced first team All-Americans Chris Passavia and third team member Paul Gilllette. Goalie Tim McGinnis and defenseman Dave Wagner were honorable mention selections.

The 2003 season featured the Terps' All-American defense led by National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley (first team) along with second teammer Passavia and third team members Zink and goalie Danny McCormick. The Terps were among the nation's leaders in defense all season, allowing just 7.25 goals per game.

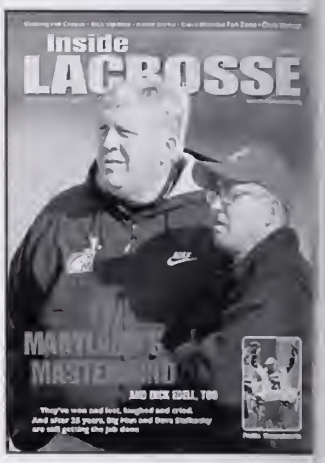
The Terps returned to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years and seventh in Slafkosky's 20 years at Maryland.

In 2002, the Terps continued to have the nation's premier defense as they led the nation in allowing just 6.88 goals per game for the top defense in the rankings. Slafkosky coached a pair of All-Americans in close defenders Howley and Passavia.

As the offensive coordinator in 2001, All-American attacker Andrew "Buggs" Combs became the second player in Maryland history to score 50 goals in a season. This will be Slafkosky's third stint as defensive coordinator at Maryland. Prior to the 2001 season, he served as defensive coordinator for five seasons.

Originally, Slafkosky was named defensive coordinator when he joined the Terps in 1984. After leading Maryland to the NCAA semifinals in 1987 and 1989, Edell had his old friend take over the offensive reins in 1991.

Without missing a beat, the Terps would soon experience the same success on the offensive end with Slafkosky at the wheel. Maryland would return to the NCAA semifinal in Slafkosky's first year with the offense in 1992. Under Slafkosky's tutelage, Mark Douglas would become a first-team All-American and establish the University of Maryland's single-season goal scoring mark of 51. In the same year, Rob Wurzburger would become the all-time career goal scorer with 137.



Maryland's offense would continue to be successful under Slafkosky's watch qualifying for the NCAA's every year and reaching the finals in 1995. His mos successful season came in 1995, with fellow assistant Scott Marr's new insight, as Maryland shattered the school's offensive record books. The Terps scored 235 goals and produced All-Americans in Kip Fulks and Rob Chomo. After the '95 season, Coach Slaf switched back to the defensive side knowing Maryland was in great shape with Marr running the offense.

Maryland's defense has become its trademark with its intimidating physical play. The Terps reached the finals in 1995, led by its National Defenseman of the Year, Dan Radebaugh. Defenseman Dave LaChapelle's play earned him second team All-America honors in 1997 and propelled the Terps into the championship game for the second time in three years.

Slafkosky worked heavily with 1998 ACC Player of the Year Kevin Healy, who was also a second team All-American. Slafkosky added another All-American honoree to his resume as Chris Lamy was honored by the USILA following the 1999 campaign. The 2000 season saw the emergence of a new star in goal, Pat McGinnis, who was among the nation's leaders in save percentage and goals against average throughout the season. The year culminated with McGinnis one of two Terps named All-ACC. Along with McGinnis, senior defender Casey Connor was honored as well. The solid close defenseman earned second team USILA All-American honors. It marked the fifth straight year a Terp defender earned All-American accolades – all under the tutelage of Slafkosky.

A 1974 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Slafkosky led the Blue Jays to a national championship his senior year as a midfielder.

Slafkosky and his wife of 27 years, Michelle, are the parents of four children: Daniel, Sarah, Kevin and Alex. Slafkosky continues to keep the memory of his eldest son Daniel close to him. A U.S. Marine, Daniel passed away in December 2000 at the age of 20.

ANDREW COPELAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR • SECOND SEASON AT MARYLAND
BUCKNELL '03

Andrew Copelan is in his second season as an assistant coach at the University of Maryland and was elevated to offensive coordinator prior to the 2007 season.

Last season, Copelan was instumental in helping guide a Terrapin offense that scored nearly 10 goals per game. That 2006 offense boasted four All-Americans, including Tewaaraton Trophy finalist and Turnbull Award winner Joe Walters.

Copelan joined the Terps prior to the 2006 season after serving as the head coach at Marist College for the previous two seasons. He was also the Director of Intramural and Club Sports at Marist.

In 2004 Copelan, as the interim head coach, guided the Red Foxes to the MAAC regular-season, finishing the year 10-7 and 8-0 in conference play. It was the best season for the Red Foxes since 1988 and the most wins since 1986. For his efforts Copelan was named MAAC Coach of the Year. In 2005 he led the Red Foxes to the MAAC Tournament title and Marist's first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Copelan was a four-year starter at Bucknell University. As a midfielder, Copelan helped lead the Bison to four consecutive Patriot League titles, and the program's first-ever NCAA berth in 2001. As a senior he earned All-Patriot League accolades, and was a four-time selection to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for Student Athletes. He was also chosen as an alternate for the annual North-South game, a national senior all-star game.

Combining a strong knowledge and enthusiasm for the game, Copelan has worked throughout the Northeast in teaching lacrosse. He has coached at the Blue Chip Camp in Fairfield, Conn., one of the top camps in the region. Copelan has also assisted in teaching youth, running clinics in his hometown of Pittsford, N.Y., as well during his playing career at Bucknell.

STEVE GORSKI

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT • FIFTH SEASON AT MARYLAND
UMBC '96

Steve Gorski enters his fifth year as a volunteer assistant coach with the Maryland lacrosse program. Gorski will be responsible for coaching the goalkeepers as well as assisting with the defense.

During his four seasons at Maryland, Gorski has helped groom some of the nation's top goalies. During the past two seasons, Harry Alford has emerged as one of the nation's top shot-stoppers, earning honorable mention All-America honors in 2005 and 2006. Alford was selected as the ACC Tournament MVP as a sophomore and was named to the all-tournament team again as a junior.

In 2004, Gorski helped tutor Tim McGinnis to a stellar season. McGinnis finished the season fifth in the nation in save percentage with 62.1 percent and sixth overall with a 7.55 goals against average and was an honorable mention All-America selection.

In 2003, he aided Terps goalkeeper Danny McCormick to one of the best seasons in the nation, as he posted a 7.23 goals against average and was named a third team USILA All-American.

As an undergrad, Gorski was a four-year letterwinner in lacrosse at UMBC from 1993-96. He was awarded the Don Auer Award after his senior season in 1996 as the Retrievers' Unsung Lacrosse Player. He played goalie for more than three seasons before finishing as a defenseman. Overall, Gorski made 35 appearances with 14 starts in goal. He stands 10th all-time in saves at UMBC with 224. Twice he had a career-high 25 saves vs. Virginia as both a freshman and a sophomore.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Coach Gorski served as the head boys' lacrosse coach at Northeast High School in Pasadena, Md., from 1996-99 and worked as an assistant coach to Clay White at Broadneck High School in Annapolis from 2000-02. He teaches Advanced Placement US history at Broadneck and serves as a reader for the AP US History exam for the College Board.

He is married to Jennifer and they reside with their one-year old twins Katie and John in Catonsville, Md.

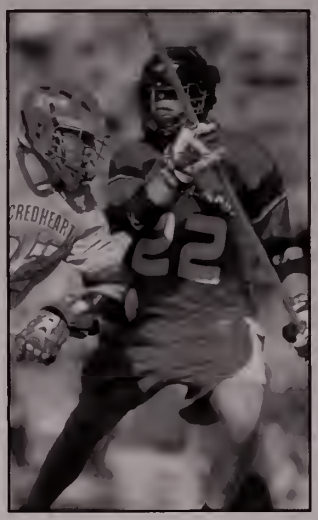
SPRINGFIELD, PA.
SPRINGFIELD

On Adolph: Tough competitor who is expected to contribute on close defense in his fourth-year in the program ... returned to see time as a back-up in 2005 after sitting out the entire 2004 season recovering from back surgery ... was injured near the end of his senior year in high school ... great character player ... understands the game very well ... plays the game with passion and is always trying to improve.



As a sophomore (2006): One groundball in 8-7 overtime win at No. 1 Duke (3/4) ... caused one turnover in 14-2 win over Dartmouth (3/21) ... helped the Terp defense hold the Big Green scoreless for 53:32 ... tallied his first collegiate assist in 18-2 win over Sacred Heart (4/18) ... one groundball in 16-8 win over No. 12 Denver (5/13) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

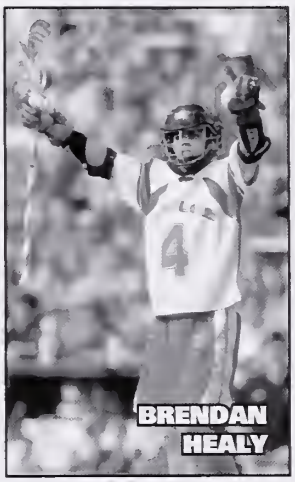
MEMORABLE SEASON CAPPED BY FINAL FOUR RUN.

LACROSSE HANDS OUT TEAM AWARDS

The Maryland men's lacrosse team and head coach Dave Cottle welcomed back the 2006 seniors that led the Terps to back-to-back NCAA Final Fours, on Sunday, October 15, for the annual awards banquet at Heritage Hall in the Comcast Center on the campus of the University of Maryland.

The highlight of the afternoon's awards was the presentation of the "Big Man" Award, given in honor of former coach Dick Edell. The award was created to honor the player that best exemplified the selfless and positive qualities of the retired coach. The 2006 award was given to Brendan Healy.



The Daniel Slafkosky Coach's Award was also given out, in memory of assistant coach Dave Slafkosky's son, who passed away prior to the 2001 season. The coaches chose this year's recipient, defensive midfielder Ryan Lang, as the player who best illustrated Dan's positive attitude on and off the field.

The Edwin Powell Award, which is presented to the Team MVP, was given to Xander Ritz, who scored numerous big goals for the Terps throughout the season, including the game-winner in overtime over then No. 1 Duke in Durham, N.C.

Other awards given out in honor of individual accomplishments throughout the 2006 season were:

Van Trump Award for best overall attackman: Joe Walters
Deckman-Silber Award for best overall defenseman: Ray Megill and Steve Whittenberg
William Cole Award for best overall midfielder: Bill McGlone
Dan Snyder Award for Most Improved Player: Ryan Clarke
Levitt Memorial Award for the best freshman: Dan Groot
Faber Heagy Award for the team's Unsung Hero: Jimmy Borell
Scholar-Athlete Award: David Tamberrino
Man-Down Award: Scott Slosson
"Be The Best" Strength & Conditioning Award: Ryan Lang
"Iron Terp" for the stongest Terp pound-for-pound: Brendan Healy
Hammer Award for the biggest hitter in 2006: Travis Holmes

TERPS MAKE FINAL FOUR FOR THIRD TIME IN FOUR SEASONS, FINISH WITH 12 WINS

- Maryland returned to the NCAA Semifinals for the third time in four years, and finished the 2006 season with a 12-5 record and a No. 4 ranking in the USILA and Inside Lacrosse polls.
- Despite dropping an 8-5 decision to UMass in the NCAA semifinals, the 2006 Terps showed tremendous heart, determination and perseverence throughout the season. Maryland defeated seven nationally ranked teams, including then-No. 1 Duke, and held the No.1 ranking for two weeks in March.
- The 2006 Terrapins will also be remembered for its dominating 11-4 victory at sixth-ranked Johns Hopkins on April 15. That win was the first for a Maryland team at Homewood Field since 1996.
- 1996 was also the last time before this season that the Terps earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Maryland earned that honor by finishing the regular season with a 10-4 records against the nation's toughest schedule.

WALTERS WINS TURNBULL AWARD AS NATION'S TOP ATTACKMAN

- Senior All-American Joe Walters added one more honor to his lengthy list of accomplishments as a Terrapin at the USILA All-America Banquet on Sunday, May 28, when he was awarded the 2006 Lt. Col. J.J. Turnbull Award as the nation's top attackman.
- Walters is the first Terrapin player to take home the Turnbull Award since 1991 when Mark Douglas won the award. Walters is the eighth Terp overall to win attackman of the year.

SEVEN TERPS EARN ALL-AMERICA HONORS

- Seniors Bill McGlone and Joe Walters were named to the USILA All-America first team for the second time in their careers as the teams were announced Saturday, May 27, before the NCAA Final Four began at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia. McGlone was the only member of the 2005 first team to repeat as a first-teamer in 2006.
- A total of seven Terps were honored by the USILA, bringing Maryland's four-year total to 29. Junior defender Steve Whittenberg was named to the second team, while fellow junior defender Ray Megill earned third team recognition. Senior attackman Xander Ritz, senior midfielder Brendan Healy and junior goalie Harry Alford were honorable mention selections.

WALTERS SELECTED NO. 1 IN MLL DRAFT

- Joe Walters was selected as the No. 1 overall pick in the 2006 Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft Wednesday night in Fairfield, Conn. Walters, a Rochester, N.Y., native, was selected by his hometown team, the Rochester Rattlers.
- Walters was the first of four Terps to be selected in the first 27 picks. Bill McGlone was also a first-round pick, going to the Baltimore Bayhawks with the fifth selection. The Bayhawks also selected Brendan Healy in the second round with the 12th overall pick. Xander Ritz was the final Terp selected, going to his hometown Philadelphia Barrage in round three with the 27th overall pick.

THE CLASS OF 2006

- Ten players finished their Terrapin careers in 2006: Brent Hargest, Michael Hartofilis, Brendan Healy, Ryan Lang, Bill McGlone, Teddy Murphy, Xander Ritz, Scott Slosson, David Tamberrino and Joe Walters.
- During their four-year careers Maryland compiled an overall record of 48-18 (.727). The 48 wins marks the most for any four-year span in the 81-year history of Maryland men's lacrosse.
- Maryland made four NCAA Tournament appearances, advancing to the Final Four three times. In the past four seasons the Terps also won two ACC Tournament titles (2004 & 2005) and also advanced to the 2006 championship game.

SUPER SENIORS

- Maryland's foursome of Super Seniors - Joe Walters, Xander Ritz, Bill McGlone and Brendan Healy - could be the most productive group of seniors to ever come through College Park. While Walters' exploits (227 points on 153 goals and 74 assists) are well known and widely reported, the other three have put up some lofty numbers of their own.
- With his three-point game vs. Virginia in the ACC finals, McGlone eclipsed the 100-point mark for his career and finished with 107 points on 77 goals and 30 assists.
- Ritz reached the 100-point milestone for his Maryland career (100 points on 56 goals and 44 assists) with three goals and an assist vs. UNC in the ACC semifinals. He ended with 110 points as a Terp. His career totals are 80 goals and 70 assists for 150 points, including his freshman season at Delaware.
- Healy struggled at times, but turned things around at just the right time, helping lead the Terps going into the NCAA Tournament. He led all scorers with five goals and three assists in the ACC tournament. He followed that up with a hat trick vs. Penn, a five-point game vs. Denver in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and another hat trick vs. Princeton in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Healy finished his Maryland career with 88 points on 60 goals and 28 assists.
- Combined the quartet scored 370 goals and added 202 assists for 572 points.

WALTERS IS FIRST TERP TO BE NAMED A FINALIST FOR THE TEWAARATON TROPHY

- Senior attackman Joe Walters was named one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's top college lacrosse player, the Tewaaraton Award Foundation announced on May 16. Walters is the first Terrapin to be named a finalist for the prestigious honor.
- Senior midfielder/attackman Xander Ritz, who was one of three players added to the list on March 27 as a midseason addition to the watch list, was among the 25 on the official nominee list, but was not named a finalist.
- Senior Bill McGlone and junior Harry Alford were on the preseason "Watch List," but did not make the official nominee list.

NO. 4 MARYLAND 10
NO. 8 GEORGETOWN..... 4
FEBRUARY 25, 2006
MULTI-SPORT FIELD

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Xander and Max Ritz combined to score eight of the Terps' 10 goals to lead the third-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 10-4 win over No. 7 Georgetown at the Hoyas' Multi-Sport Field in Washington, D.C., Saturday afternoon.

The game, which proved to be an extremely physical contest that saw a combined 16 penalties called, started slowly in the first quarter and Georgetown was able to take a 2-1 lead into the second period following Andrew Baird's goal with 13 seconds left in the quarter. But that would be the last Hoya goal until the fourth quarter as the Maryland defensive unit shutdown the Hoya offense, holding Georgetown without a goal for 38:05.

The Terps didn't waste any time getting on the scoreboard in the second quarter. Max Ritz, a sophomore from Radnor, Pa., scored his second goal of the game less than three minutes into the quarter to knot the score at 2-2. Senior midfielder Michael Hartofilis scored his first goal of the season to give Maryland its first lead of the game at the 9:46 mark of the second period.The Terrapins would take a 4-2 lead into halftime when junior attackman Michael Phipps found senior All-American Bill McGlone in front of the crease and McGlone buried a shot past Hoya goalkeeper Miles Kass, who was making his first career start.

While the Maryland defense was shutting down the Hoya offense in the third period, the Terrapin offense was clicking on all cylinders. Xander Ritz scored four times in the third quarter, including a natural hat trick of three man-up goals.

The Terps, who were up 9-2 at the start of the fourth quarter, capped their scoring at 11:24 in the fourth on Max Ritz's career-best fourth goal of the game. The Hoyas scored two late goals to finish the game at 10-4.

Defensively Maryland was led by junior All-America goalie Harry Alford, who allowed only the four goals while making 14 saves. Junior defensive midfielder Ryan Clarke picked up a game-high six groundballs and caused three Hoya turnovers.

NO. 2 MARYLAND 8
NO. 1 DUKE ..... 7 (OT)
MARCH 6, 2006
KOSKINEN STADIUM

DURHAM, N.C. - The showdown between No. 1 Duke and No. 2 Maryland lived up to the hype as the Terrapins downed the Blue Devils, 8-7 in overtime on senior midfielder Xander Ritz's game winner with 2:46 remaining ion the overtime period.

The first quarter saw the Blue Devils start out quickly, jumping out to a 1-0 lead just two minutes into the game when Matt Zash took a feed from Reade Seligmann and beat Terp goalie Harry Alford. The two teams traded possession and Alford and Duke goalie Dan Loftus, who finished with 20 saves, made several top-notch saves.

The Blue Devils committed the first penalty of the game with a holding call at 2:35. The Terps failed to capitalize on the penalty, but Ritz scored the tying goal just after the penalty was released. Duke would take a 2-1 lead into the second quarter on a Kyle Dowd goal with just 21 seconds left in the opening quarter.

The second quarter opened with Ritz scoring his second unassisted goal of the game with just 33 seconds elapsed. After scoring Maryland's first two goals, Ritz would pick up an assist on the Terps' third goal of the game, finding an open Dan Groot, who fired a shot past Loftus for his first collegiate goal and a 3-2 Terrapin lead. Ritz scored his third of the game with the Terps holding a two-man advantage at the 11:04 mark off an assist from Joe Walters.

The two teams ratcheted up the intensity over the next eight minutes with both team being assessed penalties. The Blue Devils pulled to within a goal at the 3:41 mark when Bret Thompson scored off an assist from Matt Danowski.

Maryland took a 4-3 lead into the third quarter, but Dowd scored his second goal of the game to tie the score at 4-4. Dowd's goal came at 12:01 with a man-advantage after Maryland's Bill McGlone was assessed a 30-second holding penalty. The Terps answered with a man-up goal of their own to regain a one-goal lead at the 6:17 mark. Walters laced a cross-crease pass to Ritz, who scored his fourth goal of the game.

The Terrapins continued to capitalize on Duke penalties to take a 6-4 lead with just under five minutes to go in the third quarter. Ritz fired a pass to McGlone, who dodged his defender and bounced a shot past Loftus for the two-goal Maryland lead. The Blue Devils came right back with a man-up goal from Matt Zash off an assist from Peter Lamade to make the score 6-5. Duke's Zack Greer scored less than two minutes later to knot the game at 6-6.

Danowski gave the Blue Devil's their first lead of the half at 14:24 of fourth quarter when he skipped a shot past Alford for a 7-6 Duke lead.

After an impressive display of stick skill by Walters to retain a Maryland possession, the Blue Devils called for a stick check at 10:33. Walters' stick proved to be legal and he responded two minutes later by scoring his first goal of the season to tie the score at 7-7. The game remained that way through the fourth quarter setting up Ritz's heroics.

The Blue Devils never had possession of the ball in the extra session as Maryland senior face-off specialist David Tamberrino won his 10th draw of the game to give the Terps the final possession. Tamberrino finished the game with 10 wins in 18 face-offs, helping Maryland control the tempo of the game and keeping the ball away from Duke's offense.

Defensively, the Terps were led by Alford, who made 12 saves and picked-up a team high four groundballs. Junior Jimmy Borell also picked up four groundballs, while junior Ryan Clarke and sophomore Joe Cinosky each caused two turnovers.

NO. 15 TOWSON 6
NO. 1 MARYLAND 9
MARCH 11, 2006
BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - All-American Brendan Healy tallied his fourth career hat trick, including scoring the game-winning goal, to lead the No. 1-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 9-6 victory over No. 15 Towson Saturday afternoon at Byrd Stadium.

The Terps controlled the first half of play and dominated the Tigers in Maryland's defensive zone, but only took a 4-0 lead into the second half.

All-American Joe Walters opened the scoring for the Terps off an assist from Michael Phipps at the 9:41 mark. Maryland looked to be taking a 1-0 lead into the second period, but freshman midfielder Dan Groot laced a shot past Towson goalie Mark DeGroat with just eight seconds left for a 2-0 Terrapin lead.

The second quarter was scoreless for both teams until Healy took a pass from Xander Ritz and beat DeGroat for his first goal of the season with 3:35 remaining. Walters scored his second goal of the game off an assist from Max Ritz less than a minute later to give the Terps their 4-0 halftime lead.

The third quarter started slowly, but the Tigers were woken up with seven and a half minutes gone in the period then Steve Mull found an open Bobby Griebe, who slipped the ball past Maryland goalie Harry Alford for Towson's first goal of the game. Tiger attackman Kyle Fiat scored the first of his two goals less than two minutes later to cut the Terrapin lead in half at 4-2.

Maryland responded with a man-up goal by Bill McGlone off an assist from Walters to up its lead to 5-2, but the Tigers responded with three unanswered goals, including Griebe's second of the game as the third quarter clock hit 0:00, to knot the game at 5-5 heading into the fourth quarter.

In the final quarter the Tigers seemed to have momentum in their favor, but Alford made a fantastic save at 12:18, robbing Griebe of his third goal of the game. Griebe, who slipped through the Terrapin defense and was on-on-one with Alford, made two fakes before taking a shot high, but Alford stayed with the Tiger attackman and made the save to swing the momentum back in the Terps' favor.

Ritz gave Maryland a 6-5 lead less than two minutes after Alford's save when he took advantage of a mismatch with Tiger offensive midfielder Nick Williams and banged home a shot past DeGroat. That set the stage for Healy, who scored two unassisted goals less than three minutes apart for an 8-5 Terps' lead.

It seemed Towson had one more run in it when midfielder Brian Vetter scored a man-up goal off an assist from Mull at the 4:15 mark to pull the Tigers to within a pair of goals at 8-6.

Alford stepped up and made another big save at 3:08 to squelch any hope of Towson building momentum in the game's final minutes. The Terps easily cleared the ball into the Tiger defensive zone where Walters scored his third goal to put the game out of reach at 9-6.

Maryland dominated possession all afternoon, with David Tamberrino winning 10-of-18 face-offs and the Terrapin defense forcing 24 Towson turnovers. Long-pole defensive midfielders Ryan Clarke and Charlie Wiggins combined to pick-up eight groundballs and force three Tiger turnovers. Alford finished the game with 12 saves and led the Terps with five groundballs. All-America defenseman Steve Whittenberg caused a career-high five turnovers to go along with four groundballs. Overall, Maryland won the groundball battle 40-21.

BUCKNELL 7 (2OT)
NO. 1 MARYLAND 6
MARCH 14, 2006
FIELD HOCKEY & LACROSSE COMPLEX

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - Joe Mele scored the game-winning goal with nine seconds left in the second overtime to give Bucknell a stunning 7-6 upset of the No. 1 ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team at the Field Hockey and Lacrosse Complex Tuesday night.

Maryland jumped out to a 1-0 lead less than 10 minutes into the first quarter when All-American Joe Walters laced a shot past Bison goalie Matt Baran, but that would be the last lead of the game for the Terps as Bucknell scored twice in the final five minutes of the quarter to take a 2-1 lead.

That pattern would repeat itself two more times as Maryland scored the opening goal in both the second and third quarters only to see Bucknell answer back with two of its own to take a 6-3 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

In the fourth it was Maryland's seniors that stepped up and took control of the game on the offensive end, leading the comeback to erase Bucknell's three-goal advantage, while the defense shutdown a deliberate Bison offense. Brendan Healy started the rally for the Terps with a man-up goal, his second score of the game, at the 11:39 mark. It was then Maryland's defense's time to rise to the occasion.

Baran stopped back-to-back shots from Walters and Healy, giving Bucknell a clear attempt at the 9:12 mark. The Bison executed the clear successfully, but All-America defenseman Steve Whittenberg caused one of his career-best six turnovers to give Maryland possession of the ball. Less than a minute later Bill McGlone trimmed the Bison lead to one off an assist from Xander Ritz .

Bucknell was clinging to a one-goal lead and twice took over possession following a Walters' shot, but each time sophomore long pole Charlie Wiggins forced turnovers to give the Terps the ball back, which led to Walters feeding Ritz for the game-tying goal with 4:40 remaining.

Maryland dominated possession throughout the fourth quarter and into the first overtime period, outshooting the Bison 19-1 over that stretch, but could not put Bucknell away. That came back to haunt the Terps in the second overtime when Mark Lane found Mele on the left wing and Mele slipped the ball past Terrapin goalie Harry Alford for the game-winner.

Senior face-off specialist David Tamberrino was sensational for the Terps at the X, winning 11 of 18 face-offs. Alford finished the game with 11 saves, while Whittenberg added five groundballs to go along with his six caused turnovers.

GAME 5

UMBC 4
MARCH 18, 2006
UMBC STADIUM

CATONSVILLE, MD. - The senior trio of Bill McGlone, Xander Ritz and Joe Walters combined for eight of Maryland's nine goals to lead the No. 1-ranked Terps past UMBC, 9-4, at UMBC Stadium on a cold, windy Saturday afternoon.

Maryland was only up one heading into the fourth quarter, but the defense shutout the upset-minded Retrievers in the final period and the offense scored four goals to give the Terps their fourth victory of the season.

McGlone drew first blood in the opening period with his fifth goal of the season at the 4:54 mark. The senior All-American dodged his defender and raced through the UMBC crease and beat Retriever goalie Jeremy Blevins on his left side for a 1-0 Terrapin lead. UMBC tied the game less than two minutes later on an unassisted goal by junior attackman Drew Westervelt.

The Retrievers took their first lead of the game at 13:41 of the second quarter on an unassisted goal from James Hyland, who dodged to the left and fired a shot past Maryland goalie Harry Alford from the left wing.

The Terps then knotted the game at 2-2 at 7:47. All-American Joe Walters started the play with a shot from the right wing that Blevins saved to start a UMBC clear attempt. McGlone broke up the Retriever clear attempt just over the midfield stripe and sent a pass to junior attackman Michael Phipps on the left side of net, who took a shot that rebounded off Blevins, but Mcglone jumped on the other side of the circle and swatted the ball into the goal for his second score of the game.

The third quarter started well for the Terps as they claimed a 3-2 lead off a rocket from senior Xander Ritz, who ripped a shot past Blevins at 13:28. But the Retrievers came right back just over as minute later to tie the game at 3-3 on Hyland's second goal.

Xander Ritz continued his season-long scoring binge with his 14th of the season at the 7:57 mark of the third to put the Terps up 4-3. Max Ritz started the play, dodging under his defender and swinging a pass to Phipps behind the UMBC net. Xander Ritz slipped his defender and cut through the crease where Phipps found him for the easy score.

Phipps gave Maryland a two-goal lead at 5:02 on his first of the season, but UMBC's Andy Gallagher scored an extra-man goal less than a minute later to pull to within one.

The fourth quarter was a defensive struggle for both teams until 7:29 when McGlone picked up his first assist of the season after finding Walters free on the right side of the Retriever crease. Walters slipped by UMBC defender Justin Bergeguez and faked three times before beating Blevins over his left shoulder for a two-goal Terp lead.

Walters scored his second of the game with just under five minutes remaining to give Maryland its biggest lead of the game at 7-4. Xander Ritz put the game out of reach just over a minute later with his third goal of the game off an assist from McGlone. Walters added an empty-net goal to cap the scoring at 9-4.

Defensively for the Terps, junior All-American Steve Whittenberg turned in another outstanding performance, shutting out UMBC senior attackman Brendan Mundorff, who entered the game with 146 career points. Whittenberg finished with three caused turnovers and two groundballs. Sophomores Jacob Baxter and Jeff Reynolds each set career highs with two caused turnovers apiece. UMBC's scoreless fourth quarter was the sixth time this season that Maryland has held an opponent scoreless in a quarter.

DARTMOUTH 2
NO. 4 MARYLAND 14
MARCH 21, 2006
LUDWIG FIELD

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - Any thought that Dartmouth had of pulling off an upset of the Maryland men's lacrosse team was lost early, as the fourth-ranked Terrapins dominated the Big Green, 14-2, Tuesday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

Maryland (5-1) scored seven goals in the first quarter to put the game out of reach in the first 15 minutes of play. What is even more impressive is that the Terps outshot the Big Green 15-0 in the quarter. The Maryland defense did not allow a Dartmouth shot until 6:56 in the second quarter and the Big Green did not get a shot on goal until 3:13 during an extra-man opportunity.

All-American midfielder Bill McGlone started the scoring parade with 12:18 remaining in the quarter off an assist from senior All-American Joe Walters . Sophomore middie Will Dalton scored his first goal of the season just over a minute later for a 2-0 Terp advantage.

Walters scored his first of four goals on the day at the 9:29 mark, but the most amazing score of the game came at 7:46 when sophomore defenseman Joe Cinosky caused a Dartmouth turnover in the Big Green's attack zone and raced the length of the field and fired a high shot past Dartmouth goalie Pat Marshall for his first collegiate goal.

Senior captain Xander Ritz scored the next two Terrapin goals with both coming off assists from younger brother Max. It appeared Maryland would take a 6-0 lead into the second quarter, but Walters fired a low shot with one second remaining that beat Marshall for the Terps' seventh goal of the period.

The second quarter was more of the same for Maryland as Walters scored twice more and assisted on goals by McGlone and Xander Ritz, who assisted both of Walters' goals in the period.

With an 11-0 lead at the half, the Terps were able to get their reserves some valuable playing time in the third and fourth quarters.

Junior midfielder Travis Holmes, who has primarily seen time as a defensive midfielder, scored his first goal of the season at the 2:23 mark of the third off an assist from freshman Danny Gallagher .

Gallagher followed up his first collegiate point with his first collegiate goal in the fourth quarter off an assist from junior Michael Phipps just 50 seconds into the period.

Dartmouth got on the board with a goal from Bread Heritage at the 6:28 mark, but Maryland responded with its first man-down goal of the season on freshman Scott Tompkins' first collegiate goal with an assist by sophomore midfielder Drew Evans .

The Big Green's Brian Koch closed out the scoring with 3:55 remaining with an unassisted goal.

One of the main reasons for Maryland's dominance was the performance of its face-off men. After winning just four of 16 face-offs last Saturday at UMBC, the Terps won 17 of 20 at the X, including 12 wins in 13 draws by senior David Tamberrino . Junior Thomas Alford had his best outing of the season facing-off, winning five of seven attempts.

Defensively for the Terps, it was another tremendous display of both individual and team defense. Junior All-American Steve Whittenberg, who shutout Nick Bonacci, Dartmouth's leading scorer, finished the game with two groundballs and one caused turnover. In addition to scoring a goal, Cinosky also caused three Big Green turnovers and picked up a groundball. The third member of Maryland's starting defense, All-American Ray Megill, also had an outstanding game with three caused turnovers and three groundballs.

Overall, Maryland's defense held the Big Green without a goal for 53:32 and shut them out for three quarters raising it season total of scoreless quarters to nine. The last time a Terrapin team gave up just two goals in a game was April 3, 2004, an 11-2 win over Virginia in College Park.

Junior All-America goalie Harry Alford was only forced to make two saves in 30 minutes of action, while sophomore goalie Jason Carter saw the most extensive playing time of his career, making five saves in just over 20 minutes of work.

GAME 7

NO. 4 MARYLAND 9
NORTH CAROLINA..... 6
MARCH 25, 2006
FETZER FIELD

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Player of the Year candidate Joe Walters scored five goals to lead the fourth-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 9-6 win over North Carolina on a soggy Saturday afternoon at Fetzer Field.

With Carolina (2-7, 0-2 ACC) clinging to a 5-4 lead midway through the third quarter, the Terps (6-1, 2-0 ACC) scored five unanswered goals to pull out the victory.

The first quarter was played at a meticulous pace by both teams with Maryland scoring the lone goal of the period on Walters' 13th goal of the season at the 11:44 mark. The play started in the Carolina offensive zone when Joe Cinosky caused a UNC turnover that Ray Megill scooped up, starting the Maryland break. Junior long pole Ryan Clarke found Walters on the right wing, who rocketed a shot past Tar Heel goalie Grant Zimmerman.

Carolina tied the game at 1-1 with 10:11 remaining in the second quarter when attackman Ryan Blair scored an unassisted goal on a diving shot from the back left of the Maryland goal.

Walters put the Terps back on top with an unassisted goal midway through the second period. After Maryland settled the ball into its offensive zone after a successful clear, Walters scored on an iso play from the right side of the Tar Heel net and beat Zimmerman to the top left corner of the goal.

That lead was short-lived for the Terrapins because less than a minute later Carolina midfielder Rob Driscoll scored an unassisted goal to tie the game at 2-2.

The Tar Heels took their first lead of the game at the 2:56 mark when UNC's Ben Hunt took advantage of an extra-man opportunity.

It looked as if Carolina would take a 3-2 lead into halftime, but Maryland junior defensive middie Travis Holmes caused a Tar Heel turnover in the final minute to give the Terps a chance to tie the game. Walters made sure that chance would not be wasted by scoring his third goal of the game off an assist from senior All-American Brendan Healy .

Maryland took the lead again early in the third quarter on sophomore Max Ritz's fifth goal of the season. Junior attackman Michael Phipps took a swing pass behind the UNC goal and found a cutting Ritz in front of the crease where he one-timed a shot into the Tar Heel goal.

Carolina responded quickly, tying the game once again less than two minutes later when Hunt scored his second goal of the game, this time off an assist from Brian Connors. Connors would then give UNC a 5-4 lead when he scored an unassisted goal on a low shot from the right wing.

The back-and-forth contest swung in favor of Maryland less than a minute later when All-American midfielder Bill McGlone found Phipps open on the right side of the Tar Heel net. Phipps beat Zimmerman for his second goal of the season and a 5-5 tie with 6:26 remaining in the third.

Maryland took the lead again, 6-5, with 3:23 left in the third when Max Rtiz scored an unassisted goal on an iso play beginning on a restart from behind the left side of the Carolina goal.

Walters gave the Terps their biggest lead of the game at 7-6 when he laced a shot from about 12 yards in front of the crease to convert on an extra-man opportunity at the 1:08 mark of the third.

The fourth quarter started ominously for Maryland when senior face-off specialist David Tamberrino was assessed a one-minute non-releasable penalty for having an illegal stick. But the Terrapin man-down unit made the penalty moot by killing the penalty without allowing a goal.

The Terps responded with Walters' season-high fifth goal of the game at the 9:34 mark for an 8-5 Maryland lead. Walters started the play at the midfield stripe when he intercepted a Carolina pass on a clear attempt. The Rochester, N.Y., native then raced across the field to the left wing and slipped a low shot on the shot side past Zimmerman.

Maryland put the game out of reach with 5:10 left in the game when Xander Ritz found a cutting McGlone in front of the Tar Heel net for another Terrapin extra-man goal.

APRIL 1, 2006
BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - The top-ranked Virginia Cavaliers raced out to a 5-0 lead in the first quarter and never looked back in its 15-5 victory over No. 3 Maryland Saturday afternoon in front of 6,103 fans at Byrd Stadium.

The teams and the crowd were anticipating an epic clash, but that never materialized as Virginia scored its first goal just 15 seconds into the game. The Cavaliers would score four more in the next seven minutes for the early 5-0 advantage.

Maryland looked to get back into the game at the 6:50 mark of the opening period when senior captain Xander Ritz laced a shot from the right wing over the left shoulder of Virginia goalie Kip Turner for the Terps' first score.

The Cavaliers responded by holding Maryland scoreless in the second quarter and scored four unanswered goals for take a 9-0 lead into halftime.

The third quarter started much like the first with Virginia scoring with less than a minute having ticked off the clock. Three more Cavalier goals pushed the lead to 13-1 before Maryland answered back with a goal by sophomore attackman Max Ritz . Senior face-off specialist David Tamberrino, who was 10 of 17 from the X on the afternoon, started the play by winning the face-off and pushing the ball into the Maryland attack zone. He skipped a pass to Ritz in the crease to pick up his first career assist.

After another Virginia score, two senior All-Americans hooked-up for the third Terrapin goal. Joe Walters dodged his defender in back of the Cavalier goal and fired a pass to Bill McGlone, who separated from his defender with a quick first-step and scored his 10th goal of the season.

The fourth quarter was scoreless until the 6:40 mark when Max Ritz scored his second of the game off an assist from senior All-American Brendan Healy to make the game 14-4. Virginia answered back with its final goal of the game three minutes later. Xander Ritz scored his team-leading 20th goal of the season on an extra-man opportunity with 11 seconds remaining for cap the scoring at 15-5.

Sophomore attackman Ben Rubeor led the way for Virginia (10-0/1-0 ACC) with four goals, but five other Cavaliers scored two goals each and senior J.J. Morrissey added a goal.

For the game, Maryland outshot the Cavaliers 46-37 and won the battle on the ground, picking up 44 groundballs to Virginia's 42. Junior All-American Harry Alford made 12 saves on the afternoon, while sophomore defender Jacob Baxter caused a career-high three turnovers.

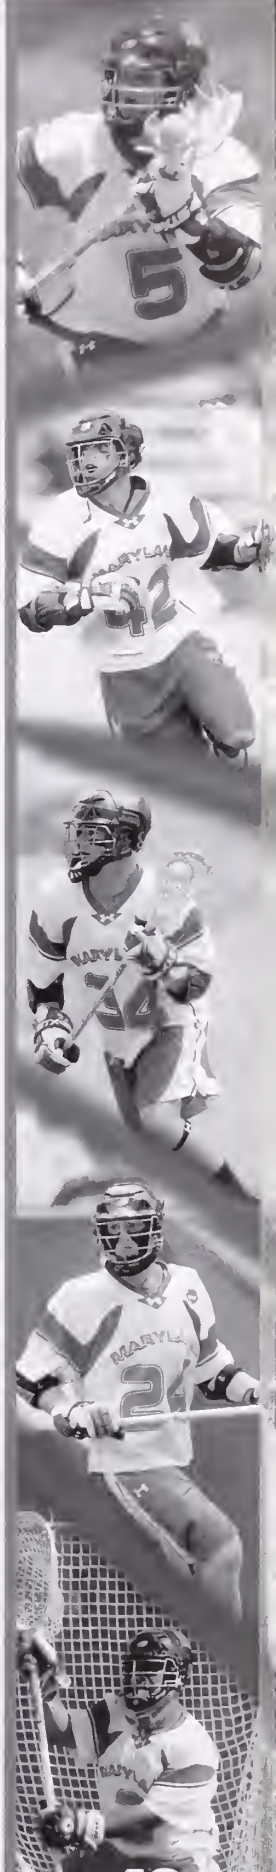
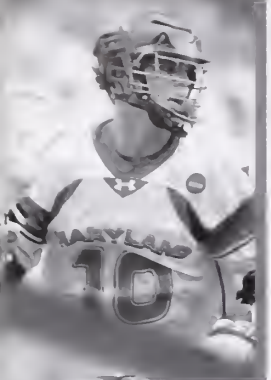
GAME 9

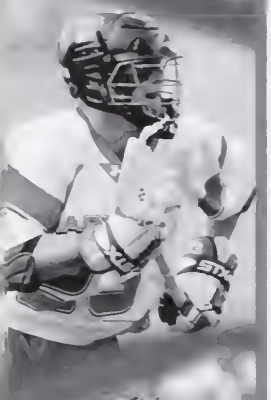
NO. 8 NAVY 7
NO. 4 MARYLAND 6
APRIL 8, 2006
BYRD STADIUM

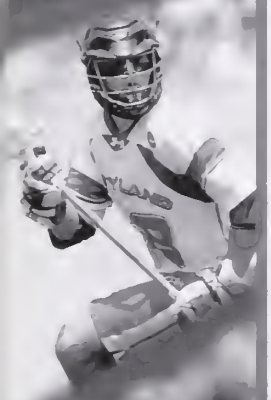
COLLEGE PARK, MD. - Navy's Ian Dingman scored his third goal of the game with eight seconds left in the fourth quarter to give No. 8 Navy a 7-6 victory over No. 4 Maryland on Friday night at Byrd Stadium in front of a crowd of 3,512.

The game was all Navy during the first 30 minutes of play as the Midshipmen bottled up the Maryland offense and were leading 5-1 at the half. Senior All-American Joe Walters scored the lone Terrapin goal in the first half of play, converting an extra-man opportunity off an assist from sophomore Max Ritz .









Maryland came out at the start of the third quarter with renewed energy and it showed just 23 seconds into the period when Walters found an open Xander Ritz on the right side of the crease. Ritz buried a shot past Navy All-America goalie Matt Russell to score the Terps' second man-uo goal of the game.

Senior All-American Bill McGlone pulled Maryland to within two goals just over 30 seconds later with his only goal of the game and the comeback seemed to be on. But Navy settled down and built the lead back to three goals on Terrence Higgins' second goal of the season at the 5:48 mark.

The Terps would cut the lead back to one on goals from freshman Dan Groot and Max Ritz and looked to complete the comeback with 12:22 left in the game, but Russell would not let Navy fall apart. With momentum on the Terps' side, Russell made two big saves on Walters and Xander Ritz to maintain the one-goal advantage.

That lead held up until the 3:22 mark when Walters took a feed from Brendan Healy and laced a shot past Russell to tie the game at 6-6. The play started with junior Ray Megill stripping Steve Looney of the ball in the Terrapin defensive zone and starting the clear that led to Walters' second goal of the game.

It looked as if the Terps would take the lead for the first time in the game on the ensuing face-off. Senior David Tambernino won his 11th draw of the game to give Maryland possession of the ball with the clock winding down. But the Terps never got another shot off. The Mids caused a Maryland turnover with 1:16 left in the game and cleared the ball, setting up Dingman's game-winner.

The loss was the second-straight heartbreaker in the series for the Terps. Last season in Annapolis, Graham Gill scored with 14 seconds left in the game to give Navy a 9-8 win.

Defensively for Maryland, sophomore Jason Carter made seven saves after replacing starter Harry Alford midway through the first quarter. Megill finished the game with a career-best four caused turnovers in addition to two groundballs. Tambernino finished with a game-high seven groundballs.

GAME 10

NO. 7 MARYLAND 11
NO. 6 JOHNS HOPKINS ... 4
APRIL 15, 2006
HOMEWOOD FIELD

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Joe Walters was determined to beat Johns Hopkins before his time at the University of Maryland was finished. The Tewaaraton Trophy nominee put the No. 7 Terrapin men's lacrosse team on his shoulders by scoring six goals and dishing out two assists to lead the Terps to an impressive 11-4 victory over the sixth-ranked Blue Jays in front of 9,778 fans at Homewood Field on Saturday night.

Walters showed why he was selected to be on Team USA this summer at the ILF World Games by dominating the Blue Jay defense. The senior from Rochester, N.Y., scored in every quarter, including two man-up goals. The eight-point game set a new career-best for Walters and is the first eight-point game by a Terp since 2002 when Mike LaMonica scored six goals and added two assists at UMBC.

The win ended a 10 years of frustration for Maryland at Homewood Field and is Maryland's first in the series since 2001. The victory also marked the first time the Terps have defeated Hopkins since Dave Cottle took over as head coach in 2002.

The first quarter was a good one for the Terps and it began with an unlikely source. Just over five minutes into the game junior midfielder Travis Holmes took a pass from Walters on the right wing and bounced a shot past Hopkins goalie Jesse Schwartzman for a 1-0 Terp lead. Walters stretched that advantage to 2-0 with his first goal of the evening, converting a man-up opportunity by lacing as shot past Schwartzman to the top left corner of the goal.

The Terps essentially put the game away in the second quarter with four goals, two from Walters and one each for senior midfielders Xander Ritz and Bill McGlone . Hopkins started the quarter with a man-up goal by Tom Duerr to cut the lead to 2-1. The Blue Jays got the man-advantage when Walters was assessed a 30-second illegal procedure penalty for throwing teammate David Tambernino's stick to the sidelines after Tambernino lost his stick in a pile-up.

That may have been the spark that got Walters to another level as he returned to the game after Duerr's goal and scored his second goal of the game 50 seconds later. He isolated his defender behind the Hopkins goal and raced around the cage and fired a low shot from the right side of the net.

Ritz got Walters his second assist of the game and gave the Terps a 4-1 lead with 7:06 left in the second quarter by ripping a shot into the top left corner of the net from the lower right wing.

Walters picked up the game winner with 6:05 in the second quarter on his second man-up goal of the game. Max Ritz picked up his eighth assist of the season by sending a pass to Walters 14 yards out in front of the Hopkins goal. The three-time All-American wound up and ripped a shot past Schwartzman for a 5-1 Maryland lead.

The Blue Jays scored their second goal of the game with 2:21 in the second and seemed to be building some momentum heading into halftime, but McGlone scored his first of two goals with 15 seconds left before the break to shift the advantage back to the Terps and send them into the locker room with a 6-2 lead.

McGlone, a first team All-American in 2005, started the third quarter the way he finished the second, scoring a goal for the Terps and helping keep Hopkins on its heels. The Ridley, Pa., native, took a pass from junior attackman Michael Phipps on the right wing and sent a low shot from around his ankles that beat Schwartzman for a 7-2 lead.

Hopkins got a glimmer of hope when midfielder Stephen Pyser returned from injury to score his first goal of the season at the 11:04 mark of the third. But that glimmer was short -lived as Walters scored his fourth goal of the game to extend Maryland's lead back to five at 8-3.

The fourth quarter was all Maryland and the Terps jumped out quick again as senior All-American Brendan Healy scored his first goal in five games for a 9-3 Terrapin lead. The Great Falls, Va., native, scored unassisted on a bounce-shot when he dodged past his defender on the left wing and fired a shot from seven yards out.

Hopkins tried to make something happen and pulled Schwartzman out of the net to double the ball on Maryland's next possession. But that plan back-fired when the ball got into Walters' hands. He fought through four defenders and slipped an easy empty-net goal for his fifth of the game.

Walters capped the scoring for the Terps by tying his career-high with his sixth goal of the game at the 6:24 mark. Sophomore midfielder Drew Evans picked up his second assist of the game by passing the ball to Walters in front of the Hopkins net and in a shot very similar to his third goal of the game, Walters ripped a shot from 14 yards for an 11--3 Terrapin lead.

Junior All-American Harry Alford rebounded from a pair of disappointing performances the past two weeks to have a tremendous showing vs. the Blue Jays. Alford made nine saves, picked up two groundballs and allowed only four goals in more than 57 minutes of action.

Other defensive standouts for the Terps include junior All-American Ray Megill who caused three Hopkins' turnovers and picked up a career-high five groundballs. All-American Steve Whittenberg caused two turnovers and picked up four groundballs. Maryland's third starting defenseman, sophomore Joe Cinosky, finished the game with a career-best four groundballs.

GAME 11

SACRED HEART 2
NO. 4 MARYLAND 18
APRIL 18, 2006
BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - A dozen Terps scored goals in the fourth-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team's 18-2 victory over Sacred Heart Tuesday afternoon in Byrd Stadium.

Leading the way for the Terrapins was senior Tewaaraton Trophy nominee Joe Walters, who is closing in on the school's all-time points and goals scored records. The three-time All-American scored three goals and added an assist to bring his career totals to 145 goals and 211 points, leaving him five goals and nine points away from the school records.

All seven of Maryland's offensive starters scored at least one goal. Seniors Bill McGlone and Xander Ritz and sophomore Max Ritz each scored twice and added assists, while junior Michael Phipps had a goal and an assist. Senior All-American Brendan Healy also chipped in a goal.

The Terrapins' starting defense unit, which dominated Johns Hopkins last Saturday, turned in a workman-like performance. Junior All-America goalie Harry Alford had to make only three saves in 30 minutes of work. The starting defense of Joe Cinosky, Ray Megill and Steve Whittenberg held the Pioneers scoreless for the first two quarters and allowed only five Sacred Heart shots.

Maryland (8-3/2-1 ACC) got seven goals from its reserves with freshman attackman Scott Tompkins leading the way with two goals for the first multi-goal game of his college career.

The Terps got two goals from their second midfield as junior Travis Holmes scored for the second-straight game and freshman Dan Groot tallied his fourth goal of the season. Sophomore middie Drew Evans also played on the second unit and picked up his third assist in the last two games.

The third midfield unit also chipped in with three points on senior Michael Hartofilis second goal of the season, Thomas Alford scored his first of the year and senior Brent Hargest picked up his first career assist.

Capping off the scoring for Maryland was junior attackman Jon Beard . The 2005 JUCO player of the year scored his first goal as a Terp with just over a minute left in the fourth quarter off an assist from junior Jay Feeley, the second of his career.

A trio of defensive players even got into the scoring column for the Terps. Junior long-pole Ryan Clarke notched his third assist of the season, while sophomores Jacob Baxter and Ryne Adolph each collected their first career assists.

The catalyst for Maryland was an outstanding effort by its face-off men, who won 15 of 24 at the X. Senior face-off specialist David Tambernino won 10 of 13 draws in a little over a half of work. He is now just 10 wins away from 250 for his career. Sophomore Will Dalton also had a good day facing-off, winning three out of five.

For the game, Maryland outshot the Pioneers 53-21 and was just as dominating on the ground, picking up 36 groundballs to Sacred Heart's 25. McGlone led the groundball-effort with four, while sophomore long-pole Charlier Wiggins and Tamberrino each had three.

The Pioneers (2-10/2-3 CAA) got back-to-back goals from Peter Greco and Kevin Walker in the third quarter for their only two scores of the game.

GAME 12
ACC SEMIFINALS

NORTH CAROLINA..... 9
NO. 3 MARYLAND 10
APRIL 28, 2006
M&T BANK STADIUM

BALTIMORE, MD. - The third-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team outscored North Carolina 9-3 in the second half to come away with a 10-9 victory over the Tar Heels Friday night at M&T Bank Stadium. Xander Ritz gave Maryland its first lead of the day with just 1:25 left in the fourth quarter to send the Terps to a third-straight ACC Final Sunday afternoon against No. 1 Virginia.

Senior All-American Brendan Healy led all scorers with a career-high five points on three goals and two assists, setting a career high with five points. Xander Ritz, who earned All-ACC honors this season, scored two of his three goals, including the game winner, in the final eight minutes of play.

Sophomore attackman Michael Phipps dished out three assists, including the feed to Ritz for the game-winner, in the come-from-behind victory.

North Carolina controlled the early going jumping out to a 4-0 lead in the first quarter on goals from Ben Hunt, Andrew McElduff, Nick Tintle and Michael Burns. Ritz got Maryland on the scoreboard early in the second period on a man-up goal, but UNC tacked on a pair of goals to take a 6-1 lead into the half.

The Terps got things going in the second half with a huge third quarter, outscoring the Tar Heels 6-1 to pull the game even at 7-7. Max Ritz opened the scoring for the Terrapins in the second half with a goal just 49 seconds into the period. Healy then continued the charge with three-straight goals midway through the quarter. All-American Bill McGlone and ACC Player of the Year Joe Walters each added scores for the Terps. Carolina's lone goal came from Hunt on a man-up opportunity.

With its five-goal cushion erased and all of the game's momentum in Maryland's favor, Carolina regained control of the game at the start of the fourth quarter with back-to-back goals by Ben Staines and Drew Habeck to pull out to a 9-7 lead.

Xander Ritz pulled the Terps to within a goal at the 8:08 mark of the fourth when Tar Heel goalie Grant Zimmerman saved a hard shot by McGlone but could not control the rebound. Ritz pounced on the groundball and quickly fired a shot over Zimmerman's left shoulder into the top corner of the net.

McGlone tied the game for Maryland with four and a half minutes left off Healy's second assist of the game, setting the stage for Ritz's third game-winning shot of the season.

The play started for the Terps at 2:53 when All-America defender Steve Whittenberg caused his third UNC turnover of the game and picked up a groundball to help clear the ball into Maryland's offensive zone. Walters appeared to give the Terrapins the lead when he beat Zimmerman with a high, hard shot from the right wing, but the ball clipped the crossbar preserving the Carolina lead. Phipps picked up the tough groundball in traffic to keep the possession with the Terps and head coach Dave Cottle called a timeout to settle his team and setup the ensuing possession.

That possession started with the ball finding Walters, who drew an immediate double-team from the Carolina defense. The Tewaaraton Trophy nominee drew the defenders out a step further before sending a pass to Phipps on the right side of the crease. Phipps looked across the goal mouth and laced a pass to a wide-open Ritz, who beat Zimmerman to send Maryland to the ACC Championship game.

Defensively for Maryland, All-America goalie Harry Alford tied his season high with 14 saves, while All-ACC defenders Whittenberg and Ray Megill combined for four groundballs and four caused turnovers. Ritz picked up a game-high six groundballs and junior defensive midfielder Jimmy Borell set his career best with five pick-ups.

GAME 13
ACC FINALS

NO. 3 MARYLAND 5
NO. 1 VIRGINIA..... 11
APRIL 30, 2006
M&T BANK STADIUM

BALTIMORE, Md. - The top-ranked Virginia Cavaliers ended the third-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team's two-year reign as ACC champions with an 11-5 victory Sunday afternoon in front of 5,739 at M&T Bank Stadium.

The Terps were led by senior All-Americans Brendan Healy and Bill McGlone, who were each selected to the all-tournament team. Healy followed up his five-point performance in Friday night's semifinal with a two-goal, one-assist outing vs. the Cavaliers. McGlone's weekend total rose to seven with two goals and an assist after scoring twice and adding two assists on Friday vs. North Carolina.

Junior goalie Harry Alford was also selected to the all-tournament team. The All-American from Washington, D.C., made 11 saves vs. Virginia, bringing his tournament total to 25.

The Cavaliers, who raced out to six unanswered goals in the first meeting between the two teams, scored the game's first two goals in the first four minutes, but Maryland's defense played tough and settled things down before Virginia could get into rhythm. McGlone scored his first goal of the game at the 2:47 mark of the first quarter to close the gap to 2-1, but the Cavaliers' Matt Ward scored his first of two on the day with eight seconds left on the clock for a 3-1 Wahoo advantage.

The second period started slow with several turnovers by both teams before Virginia scored its fourth goal of the game by Steve Giannone at 7:09 on the clock. Maryland answered back a minute and a half later with Healy's first goal of the game coming off an assist by McGlone. The Cavaliers tacked on another for a 5-2 lead less than a minute later and looked to be building momentum.

But the Terps came right back with an unassisted goal by Healy, his fifth of the tournament, at the 3:57 mark to close the deficit to 5-3. Virginia built the lead back to three goals with Danny Gladding's unassisted goal 48 seconds later. The Wahoos looked like they would up that lead to four before the half when Maryland's Jeff Reynolds was called for a cross check penalty with 1:30 remaining, but Alford stepped up and made two big saves to help the Terps kill the penalty and go into the break just down by three.

Maryland was able to close the gap to 6-4 when junior attackman Michael Phipps scored an unassisted goal, beating Virginia goalie Kip Turner, who was a high school teammate of Phipps' at Severn. But that was as close as the Terps could get, as Virginia scored three unanswered goals in the final four minutes of the third quarter to open up a 9-4 lead.

McGlone scored off an assist from Healy less than a minute into the fourth, but the Cavaliers put the game out of reach with two more goals and a solid defensive performance.

The Terrapin defense, which held Virginia to its second lowest scoring output of the season (five goals below its season average of 16.0), was led by junior All-Americans Steve Whitteberg and Ray Megill . Whittenberg finished the game with five groundballs and a pair of caused turnovers, while Megill picked up three groundballs and caused one turnover. The third member of Maryland's close defensive unit, sophomore Joe Cinosky, caused three Virginia turnovers with one groundball.

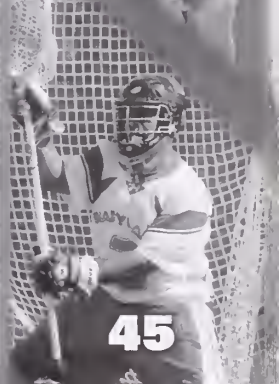
GAME 14

NO. 10 PENN 4
NO. 4 MARYLAND 12
MAY 6, 2006
BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - With his fourth goal of the day, with 1:02 left in the third quarter, senior attackman Joe Walters became Maryland's all-time leader in goals scored with the 150th of his brilliant career. The fact that it came on "Senior Day" with family and friends in the stands cheering him on made it sweet. But the fact that it helped the fourth-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team to a dominating 12-4 victory over No. 10 Penn was the sweetest thing for Walters.

"Senior Day" turned out to be a showcase for Maryland's high-scoring senior quartet of Walters, Bill McGlone ,Brendan Healy and Xander Ritz, but in the end the day belonged to Walters. Entering the game, the two-time ACC Player of the Year was three goals behind Matt Hahn on the all-time goal scoring list with 146 to Hahn's 149.

But even with history within his grasp the Tewaaraton Trophy nominee didn't press the action. He took only one shot in the first quarter. He started to get on a roll in the second period with his first goal of the day, capitalizing on a man-up situation, off an assist from junior attackman Michael Phipps at the 10:29 mark. He picked up goal No. 148 about ten minutes later. With 1:38 left on the clock, off an assist from Ritz, he laced a shot from about eight yards out past Quaker goalie Greg Klossner.



The record-tying goal for Walters came 11 minutes later, with 5:17 to go in the third. McGlone skipped a pass to the Rochester, N.Y., native, who buried a shot from five yards out.

That tandem would hook up again for the record-setting goal just four minutes later and it was vintage Walters. McGlone skipped a pass across the crease to Walters, who dropped his stick and fired a shot from near his ankles past Klossner. A moment passed as realization set in and Walters was mobbed by teammates, who congratulated him and recognized him as the most prolific scorer in the 81-year history of Maryland men's lacrosse.

But the game was not just about Walters' pursuit of the scoring record. The remainder of Maryland's senior quartet each had outstanding games in their last regular season game at Byrd Stadium.

Healy scored Maryland's first two goals to give the Terps a 2-1 lead after the first quarter. He would book-end those with the Terps' final score of the game with 2:18 left in the fourth quarter.

Ritz joined Walters and McGlone as 100-point scorers as a Terp with his two-goal, two-assist afternoon. The Wayne, Pa., native scored back-to-back goals in the second quarter, including what turned out to be the game winner with 9:58 left in the quarter.

McGlone extended his goal-scoring streak to 14 games with Maryland's first goal of the second quarter to build the Terrapin lead to 3-1. The two-time All-ACC honoree also added three assists. In addition to his assists on Walters' record-tying and record-setting goals, he also picked up an assist on Healy's second goal of the first quarter.

Ten of Maryland's 12 goals were scored by the Walters (4), Healy (3), Ritz (2) and McGlone (1). The remaining two goals came from sophomores. Max Ritz scored his 13th goal of the season with a transition tally off an assist from junior long-pole Ryan Clarke. Senior short-stick middie Ryan Lang started the play by causing a Quaker turnover and shuffling the groundball to All-ACC defenseman Steve Whittenberg. Whittenberg found Clarke with a cleaning pass and Clarke raced down the middle of the Quaker defense and looked to be positioning himself for a shot, but a pair if Penn defenders converged on him. But that left Max Ritz open on the left side of the crease. Clarke found him with a quick pass and Max Ritz buried the shot past Klossner to give Maryland a 10-4 lead with 11:26 left in the fourth.

The other Terp sophomore to find the back of the Quaker net was midfielder Drew Evans. The Ithaca, N.Y., native scored his first career goal on a one-timer from five yards out on the left side of Penn's crease. Freshman midfielder Dan Groot picked up his first career assist on the play. After dodging his defender, Groot was able to avoid Penn's slider and shuffled a low pass to Evans to tally the helper.

"Senior Day" also turned out to be a showcase for senior David Tambernno. The face-off specialist from Lutherville, Md., won eight of 11 face-offs and picked up a game-high six groundballs.

Defensively the Terps were led by its trio of close defensemen. Whittenberg, who marked Penn's leading scorer DJ Andrzejewski and held him without a point on 0-4 shooting, caused two Quaker turnovers and picked up one groundball. Sophomore Joe Cinosky totaled three groundballs on the afternoon, while All-ACC selection Ray Megill had one caused turnover and a groundball.

In goal, junior All-American Harry Alford had another steady showing, stopping nine Quaker shots and picking up two groundballs. Senior Teddy Murphy played the final 3:52 for the Terps and made one save.

In addition to Walters, McGlone, Ritz, Healy, Lang, Tambernno and Murphy, the game also marked the final regular season home game for Brent Hargest, Michael Hartofilis and Scott Slosson.

GAME 15
NCAA FIRST ROUND

NO. 12 DENVER 8
NO. 4 MARYLAND 16
MAY 13, 2006
BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - The No. 2 seeded Maryland men's lacrosse team scored the game's first six goals and never looked back en route to a 16-8 win over Denver in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Byrd Stadium.

With today's victory the Terps advance to the quarterfinals to face No. 7 seed Princeton on May 21 at Towson's Unitas Stadium. The Tigers move on following an 11-8 victory over UMBC in Princeton, N.J. Game time will be decided on Monday, May 15.

Joe Walters, the 2006 ACC Player of the Year, became Maryland's all-time leader in points with six points on the day to raise his career total to 223 points. The native of Rochester, N.Y., surpassed Bob Boniello's mark of 219 with his third assist of the day at the 12:56 mark of the third quarter. The five assists set a career high for Walters, who had previously had four assists twice in his career.

Sophomore attackman Max Ritz also totaled six points on the day with a career-high five goals and one assist. He started the Terrapin scoring run in the first quarter with an unassisted goal from the left side of the Pioneer goal crease. The Wayne, Pa., native scored one more in the first and assisted on Bill McGlone's second quarter goal, the eventual game winner, to finish the first half with three points.

He opened the scoring for the Terps again in the third, getting the goal on Walters' record-setting assist. Ritz picked up the goal after inadvertently tipping a Walters' shot from the right wing, past the right shoulder of Denver goalie Austin Konkel and into the Pioneer net. Ritz scored twice more in the fourth, including Maryland's final goal off an assist from Brendan Healy.

Healy, a two-time All-American, continued his hot scoring streak with a five-point game on three goals and a pair of assists. The Great Falls, Va., native scored a goal in each of the first three quarters and added assists on Xander Ritz's second goal of the game and Max Ritz's fifth goal.

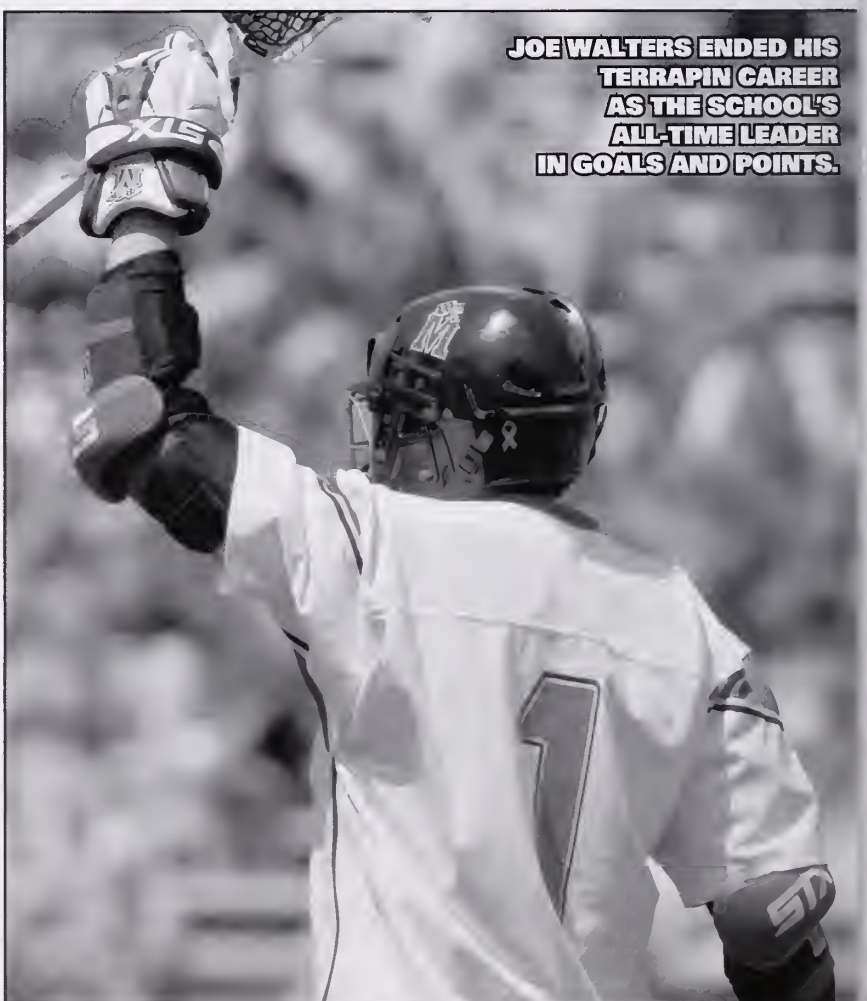
Xander Ritz scored his 11th career hat trick on three of five shooting. The All-ACC midfielder also was a force off the ball, picking up two groundballs and forcing two caused turnovers.

McGlone scored twice, including the game-winner in the second quarter to extend his goal scoring streak to 15 games.

The other two Terrapin goals came from unlikely sources as short-stick defensive midfielder Jimmy Borell scored his first goal of the season on a fast break at 8:24 in the second quarter to extend Maryland's lead to 9-2. Sophomore midfielder Drew Evans scored Maryland's fourth goal of the game in the first quarter on an assist from Walters.

The Terrapin defense was led by a pair of junior All-Americans. Steve Whittenberg tied his career high with five groundballs and causing five Pioneer turnovers, while Ray Megill caused three turnovers and picked up three groundballs. The third member of Maryland's starting close defense, sophomore Joe Cinosky, also chipped in with three groundballs. Reserve defenseman Jacob Baxter also made an impact, tying his career high with three caused turnovers.

Maryland also got a spark from sophomore face-off man Will Dalton, who won 12 of 22 face-offs against Denver's Geoff Snider, who entered the game leading the NCAA in face-off winning percentage.



JOE WALTERS ENDED HIS TERRAPIN CAREER AS THE SCHOOL'S ALL-TIME LEADER IN GOALS AND POINTS.

GAME 16
NCAA QUARTERFINALS

NO. 9 PRINCETON 6
NO. 4 MARYLAND 11
MAY 21, 2006
UNITAS STADIUM

TOWSON, MD. - The second seeded University of Maryland men's lacrosse team returns to the NCAA Final Four for the third time in the past four seasons after defeating No. 7 seed Princeton, 11-6, in the quarterfinals Sunday afternoon in front of 7,260 at Towson's Unitas Stadium.

The Terps (12-4) used an opportunistic offense and a stingy defense to stifle the Tigers for much of the contest. Senior midfielder Brendan Healy scored his third straight hat trick to pace the Maryland offense, while junior All-America defenseman Steve Whittenberg tied his career high with six caused turnovers to lead the defense.

Maryland jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first quarter on a pair of goals from Healy and one each from senior All-American Joe Walters and sophomore middie Drew Evans . Princeton finally got on the board with an unassisted goal from Scott Sowanick at the 4:19 mark, but junior attackman Michael Phipps scored a minute later for the Terps to take a 5-1 lead into the second quarter.

That second period saw the Tigers score four goals in 2:57 to tie the game at 5-5. But Princeton would never take the lead as Maryland settled down and took control of the game again with a goal by freshman midfielder Dan Groot at 5:42 of the second quarter. Phipps would add another Maryland goal, his second of the game and the eventual game-winner, at 3:24 to give the Terps a 7-5 halftime advantage.

The two teams battled in the third quarter with both defenses holding the opposing offense in check. Healy tallied the lone goal of the quarter at 9:58, his third of the game. Walters started the play by drawing a double team on the right side of the Tiger crease before skipping a pass to Healy, who laced a shot from 15 yards out on the right wing past Tiger keeper Alex Hewit.

The fourth quarter started well for the Terps when Princeton's Alex Haynie was penalized for illegal procedure at 13:49 to give Maryland a man-up opportunity The Terrapins, who are second in the nation in extra-man efficiency, took a 9-5 lead when senior Xander Ritz scored his 10th man-up goal of the season off of a quick feed from Walters to the left side of the crease.

Sophomore attackman Max Ritz score Maryland's 10th goal of the game at the 7:31 mark off an assist from older brother Xander. Walters would finish off the scoring for the Terps with his second goal of the day at 3:24. Princeton's Josh Lesko scored the game's final goal with 32 seconds left, ending a 38:09 scoreless stretch for the Tigers.

In addition to Whittenberg's six caused turnovers, the Maryland defense received outstanding efforts from its other starting close defenders. Sophomore Joe Cinosky caused three turnovers and picked up three groundballs, while junior All-American Ray Megill had four groundballs and one caused turnover. In goal, All-American Harry Alford stopped eight shots, including six in the second half.

The Terps also controlled the game from the face-off circle with senior David Tamberrino winning 11 of 20 draws and picking up a game-high seven groundballs. Junior defensive midfielder Jimmy Borell was outstanding on the wing for the Terps, tying his career best with five groundballs.

The Terps will meet unseeded Massachusetts in the semifinals on Saturday, May 27, at Lincoln Financial Field. Face-off between the Minutemen and the Terrapins is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. The second semifinal will pit No. 1 seed Virginia vs. No. 5 seed Syracuse at 2 p.m.

GAME 13
NCAA SEMIFINALS

NO. 10 MASSACHUSETTS . 8
NO. 4 MARYLAND 5
MAY 27, 2006
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

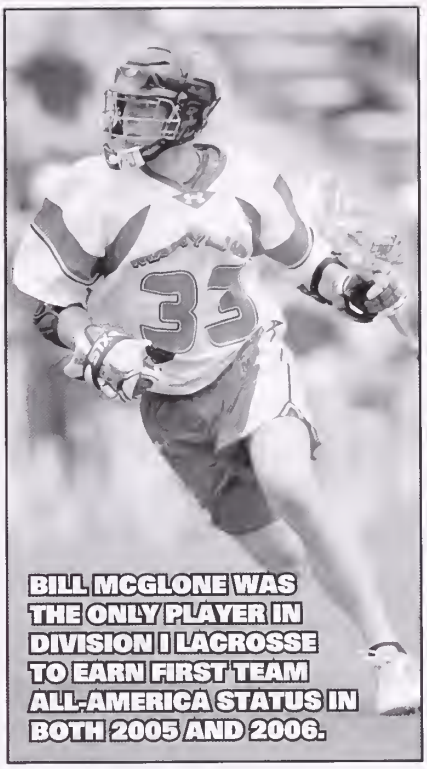
PHILADELPHIA, PA. - The second seeded University of Maryland men's lacrosse team dropped a tough 8-5 decision to the University of Massachusetts in the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field.

The first quarter was dominated by outstanding goalie play for both teams with junior All-American Harry Alford making six saves for Maryland and UMass' Doc Schneider stopping four Terp shots. Alford was spectacular from the get-go, making two tough saves on the Minutemen's first possession. Maryland jumped out to a 1-0 lead on senior All-American Xander Ritz's wrap-around goal at the 9:12 mark. UMass tied the game at one apiece when Jim Connolly bounced a shot past Alford about 30 seconds later.

The Minutemen took their first lead of the day with just more than five minutes remaining in the first on a Rory Pedrick behind the back shot into the top right corner of the Maryland goal. The quarter would end in a 2-2 tie after junior long-pole Ryan Clarke scored just the second goal of his career off a feed from senior Ryan Lang on a fast break. The breakaway was started by Alford, who made an amazing one-on-one save on UMass' Brian Jacovina, who was on a breakaway for the Minutemen.

The second quarter was a close-fought affair with the Minutemen scoring the lone goal of the quarter just a minute and a half into the period when senior attackman Sean Morris laced a low shot from nine yards out on the right wing for a 3-2 UMass lead. Maryland controlled the ball for much of the period, but could not get any really good looks on the Minutemen goal. The Terps' best scoring chance came at the 2:27 mark when senior All-American Joe Walters ripped a shot from the left wing that beat Schneider but hit off the right corner of the crossbar.

The third quarter belonged to the Minutemen, who scored three times and held the Terps scoreless for the second straight period to take a 6-2 advantage into the fourth quarter. Morris picked up his second goal of the game at the 8:43 mark on a low shot from 10 yards out in front of the goal. The other two UMass goals came in a five second span starting with a rebound goal by Jacovina. Alford made the save on Morris' orginial shot, but Jacovina was in the right place at the right time to scoop up the groundball and slide a low shot past Alford at 2:38. UMass' face-off specialist Jack Deane won the ensuing face-off, but picked up a loose ball and scored on a quick shot into the top right corner of the Terp goal, which proved to be the game-winner.



BILL MCGLONE WAS THE ONLY PLAYER IN DIVISION I LACROSSE TO EARN FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICA STATUS IN BOTH 2005 AND 2006.

Maryland got back into the game with two quick scored to start the fourth quarter. Junior attackman Michael Phipps scored his seventh of the season on an easy shot from the right side of the Minutemen goal. The ensuing face-off saw Alford make another remarkable save, robbing Connolly with a diving save.

Sophomore attackman Max Ritz pulled the Terps to within two goals at 6-4 with his 20th goal of the season at the 12:48 mark. Connolly ended Maryland's two-goal run with his second goal of the day off less than a minute after Ritz's score.

Freshman midfielder Dan Groot scored the Terrapins' final goal of the game off an assist from Max Ritz at 10:10 in the fourth. Morris capped off the scoring for the Minutemen with an unassisted goal, his third of the day, at 6:33.

Schneider made seven of his 15 saves in the fourth quarter, while Alford finished with 10 saves on the afternoon.

The game marked the end of 10 Maryland senior's careers: Brent Hargest ,Michael Hartofilis ,Brendan Healy ,Ryan Lang ,Bill McGlone ,Teddy Murphy ,Xander Ritz ,Scott Slosson ,David Tamberrino and Joe Walters .

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

2007 MARYLAND MEN'S LACROSSE

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 92 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes three Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

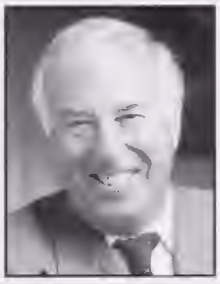
These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

In 2004, Maryland's School of Music hosted the National Symphony Orchestra in its first university residency, and its 2006 opera production was declared by the Washington Post music critic "... as good as any Bohème you are likely to see this side of the Metropolitan Opera or Covent Garden."

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND™



DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
EIGHTH YEAR

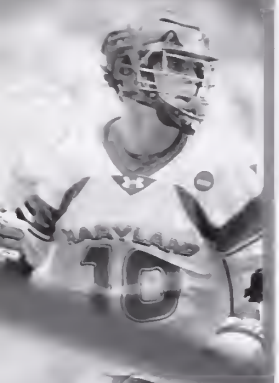
In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state-of-the-art sports complex; a high-tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.



DEBORAH A. YOW

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR • 13TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 13th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought steady and continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 13 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 14 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $52 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating deb which her administration inherited has been eradicated
- Greatly enhanced the academic support service provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhauste eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent fo student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in th upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising effort on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts t athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporat sponsorship revenues have increased by over 30 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilitie for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center fo men's and women's basketball and other sports that us the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade o athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy wit management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area o Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics ar exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable four nationa championships during the 2005-06 academic season
- In 2005-2006, the Terrapins achieved the highes student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Marylan athletics.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Repo as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (fo overall quality and competitive excellence).

IN DECEMBER OF 2004, DEBORAH A. YOW WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS BY STREET & SMITH'S SPORTS BUSINESS JOURNAL.

Dr. Yow congratulates one of the members of the Competitive Cheer team that won the 2006 NCA Division I National Championship.

In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the most well-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.

In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.

Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.

In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. Graduation rates in football are near 80 percent and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen. The 2006 season saw the Terps finish with a 9-4 record and a 24-7 win over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only two universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford is the only other NCAA Division I institution to achieve that mark.

Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,243 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center.

Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four three times in the past four seasons.

Field Hockey earned a National Championship in 2005-06 and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.

Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.

Dr. Yow with former Terp student-athletes Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Men's Soccer appeared in four consecutive Final Fours from 2002-05 and won the NCAA National Championship in the 2005 season.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2005-06, 13 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 12 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

TROY TUCKER

ASSOCIATE AD/INTERNAL OPERATIONS/MEN'S LACROSSE SUPERVISOR

Troy Tucker was hired as Associate Athletics Director in July 2004. Tucker is involved many of the day to day operations of the department in addition to overseeing the men's lacrosse, women's soccer, field hockey, men's golf, and swimming & diving programs and supervising the Facilities & Operations unit. Tucker also serves as the vice-chair of the ACC swimming & diving committee.

Prior to his arrival at Maryland, Tucker served as the Director of Athletics at 3 institutions; Jamestown-Olean Community College (1992-96), D'Youville College (1996-99) and Herkimer County Community Colllege (1999-2004). During his tenure at Herkimer, Tucker operated the 21-sport, nationally competitive program with a balanced budget. He also oversaw the renovations of nine different facilities.

Under Tucker's direction, Herkimer earned three-consecutive top-10 finishes in the Region III Director's Cup and finished 2003-04 ranked fifth among junior college athletic programs in the nation by NATYCAA Pepsi Cup. Three teams won five NJCAA National Championships and four won 13 regional titles. His teams also earned eight NJCAA Academic Team of the Year awards with the women's swimming & diving squad garnering the honor three times. Tucker also served as the Head Men's Basketball Coach from 1999-2003, earning Coach of the Year Honors in 2001-02.

Prior to his tenure at Herkimer, Tucker was the Director of Athletics and Head Men's Basketball Coach at NCAA Division III D'Youville College in Buffalo, N.Y. While there, he headed the expansion of the athletics program from three to 11 teams, and was named National Athletic Director of the Year in 1998.

A native of Scio, N.Y., Tucker began his collegiate career as an administrator at Jamestown-Olean Community College. During his time there, he helped initiate the college's athletic program and was also the Jaguars' Head Men's Basketball Coach for a year.

Tucker is a 1991 graduate of SUNY Geneseo where he earned a bachelor of science in business. In 1992, he earned his master's from Springfield in athletics administration. Tucker and his wife, Rhonda, have two sons, Griffin and Mason and a daughter, Haley.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Dena Freeman-Patton (right) works with the men's lacrosse team.

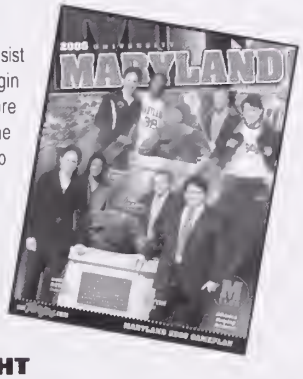
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

In the highly competitive world of collegiate lacrosse, the off-court preparation of the lacrosse athlete is a critical component in the on-field success of any Division I program. Marc Heineke, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's lacrosse, believes strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the lacrosse field.

Heineke's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are lacrosse oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the style of lacrosse that Dave Cottle is known for.

The members of the men's lacrosse team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located downstairs from the men's lacrosse locker room in Varsity Team House.

ATHLETIC DEVELOPMENT

TERRAPIN CLUB

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

GETTING INVOLVED

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY

The University of Maryland issues press credentials under the priorities and according to the guidelines set out below. These priorities and guidelines are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media and of other types of access not enjoyed by members of the public at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Office of Media Relations ("Media Relations") is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at UMTerps.com no later than five days prior to an event. For more information, contact the Media Relations Office at 301-314-7064.

PRIORITIES:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions; and official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
6. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline number 7, below.

GUIDELINES:

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this Policy, all passes and credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to any other person, including non-working members of a media organization.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."
6. Credentials may be issued to the official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
7. Credentials may be issued to other online entities that: a) are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; b) host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and; c) employ for that University of Maryland dedicated website at least one full-time, permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. An online entity that is a outlet primarily devoted to the recruitment of students athletes will not qualify for credentials.
8. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18.
9. Media Relations may deny or revoke credentials for noncompliance with the Priorities or Guidelines set out in this Policy; for violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request Media Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for a Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors o sports directors on official letterhead no later than five days prior to an event. They should be sent to the Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcas Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094. No credential requests will be accepted via e-mail or by phone.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers must obtain an armband from the press box to gain admittance to the field.

Photographers are expected to comply with all University regulations and policies. Any photographer or any media a member not complying with instructions of University staf may be required to surrender their credentials.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the south side of Byrd Stadium in Tyser Tower. Access to Level 3 (print) and Level 4 (radio television booths) is via elevators.

POSTGAME STATISTICS

A statistics packet including play-by-play and final box scores are compiled for each game and made available to the media in the Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium Press Box.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

Maryland players and head coach Dave Cottle will be available for interviews approximately one hour before practice with accredited members of the media throughou the season. All interview requests must be made through the media relations office, contacting Patrick Fischer. Please give 24 hours notice.

Players' individual phone numbers will not be given to the media. Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Media wishing to attend practice should contact the Media Relations Office in advance. No interviews will be permitted after the start of practice. Team meetings before, during and after practice are private.

Practices generally begin at 2:30 p.m. on Monday Wednesday and Friday. Tuesday-Thursday practices usually begin at 1 p.m.

KYLE HARRISON

"The Crankshaft changes your game. It's unlike any stick I've ever played with. The 10° bend puts the ball right in the sweet spot of the pocket... it really gives you a much better feel for the ball, more control and a quicker release"

Kannon X3

Step Up to the K18 10° head and Crankshaft handle.

The new K18 10° head joins the Kannon and X3 as the best engineered sticks in the game. This revolutionary, aerodynamic head delivers light weight, check-worthy strength and just enough flex for dominating the face-off. And like all 10° head and handle combinations, the K18 head gives you a quicker release, precise hand positioning and a better feel for the ball.
